in the garden at the Seattle Chinese Garden

We need the help of many volunteers to maintain our planted areas in prime condition for visitors. If you enjoy being outdoors and getting your hands in the soil, consider helping out when you have time. We offer flexible, year-round volunteer opportunities for people of all ages. No experience needed, but special gardening skills or knowledge are always welcome.

Volunteers may help with:

weeding • raking • pruning • mulching
planting • watering • thinning bamboo

Bob Seely, our garden manager, is on site at the following times and welcomes you to come by for whatever time you can spare. Families and groups of friends or organizations/clubs are welcome too.

Tuesday • Thursday • Saturday • Sunday
