

SPRING WU WO TEA GATHERING

Seattle Chinese Garden cordially invites you and your friends to join the Garden community for our spring Wu Wo Tea Gathering.

Sunday, June 17, 2018 2:00-4:30 pm

Location

Knowing the Spring Courtyard @ Seattle Chinese Garden

A Wu Wo tea gathering is a magical, silent experience of preparing and sharing tea with others. See page 2 for basic information and the essential items to bring. For more details and a video link, visit

<http://seattlechinesegarden.org>

Local tea lovers are supporting the gathering in collaboration with
Seattle Chinese Garden

Washington Overseas Chinese Artist Association

Xuemei Education Institute

Participation is free, but we welcome and appreciate donations supporting the Seattle Chinese Garden's tea programs ($15 suggested donation).

Space is Limited: Please Register by June 15

info@seattlechinesegarden.org or 206.934.5219

Registration also offers a chance to win tea related calligraphy work by master calligraphers Zuolie Deng and Xinghua Xiao.

Seattle Chinese Garden welcomes you !

WU-WO TEA CEREMONY

Wu Wo Tea Gathering is a special experience of making, drinking, and sharing tea. First-time participants would benefit from the wonderfully demonstrative video and literature by the Northwest Wu-Wo Tea Society and some useful clips on how to brew and serve Chinese gongfu tea

We welcome everyone to this gathering ~ including beginners in tea preparation. You will find more detailed information and instructions in the "Tea Tutorial" at seattlechinesegarden.org.

Below is information on supplies needed, gathering procedure and protocol for a Wu Wo gathering. Please familiarize yourself with the protocols prior to the gathering.

Essential Items to Bring:

- A mat for sitting or kneeling, such as a yoga mat or something similar
- Tea, tea pot and 4 tea cups
- A tea tray and any other implements you use to make tea
- A large thermos with hot water. Bring enough for four rounds of tea.*

Procedure:

1. Sign in and draw number
2. Find your number spot and set up your tea station
3. Start making tea
4. First serving, leave the teacup with the participants for the second serving
5. Second serving
6. Third serving to spectators
7. Guzheng music
8. Dance
9. Calligraphy prize drawing
10. Pack up tea station
11. Group photo
12. Tea gathering ends

Seattle Chinese Garden

6000 16th Ave SW (West Seattle)
North entrance at South Seattle College
Park in the large lot on your right
The pathway to the Garden is west of the one-story building

茶禪

樂遊浮生半日閑
坐茶亭聽鶴
煮心由壽書
香解名
秋澹
遠水
長
松
石
水
琴

