

Moonlight Lantern Light

Moon Magic Photography Workshop
with Ray Pfortner

西 Seattle
華 Chinese
園 Garden

The Garden reveals another dimension of beauty under the glow of lanterns and light of the moon.

*Photos by past workshop members:
Gate and Pond ~ Dewey Webster
Window Zoom ~ sandy Marvinney*

For photographers with any type of digital camera and level of experience. Learn techniques for painting with light, capturing full-moon “star bursts,” and zooming for creative images. Bring a tripod.

- August 16 Thursday, 6:45-10:45 pm • Crescent Moon
Classroom session on techniques and tips, followed by shooting in the garden
- August 25 Saturday, 6:45 to 10:45 pm • Shoot in the garden at close to Full Moon
- September 6 Thursday, 6:45 to 9:45 • Classroom review of your best photos

- Tuition: $155 for garden members, $185 for nonmembers (You can join when you register.)
- Participants: Limited to 16; minimum age is 14 ~ Register soon to ensure your participation.
- To Register: Online at seattlechinesegarden.org (See instructions on home page and click the link.)
By phone: 206.934.5219 (Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays, 12–5 pm); or mail a check.
- Location: Seattle Chinese Garden, 5640 16th Ave SW, at South Seattle College, north entrance

Ray Pfortner is an educator and professional photographer whose work focuses on nature, landscapes, environmental issues, and Asian gardens. Ray has a special interest in coaching new talent.

To learn more: RayPfortner.com. Questions? raypfortner@gmail.com OR info@seattlechinesegarden.org